AHLA NATURAL GAS AGGREGATION PROGRAM

The Alberta Hotel & Lodging Association, in partnership with Gas Alberta Energy (GAE), is pleased to provide AHLA members with an innovative program that enables them to benefit from lower natural gas prices available in the future.

What are the advantages of participating in the AHLA's Natural Gas Aggregation Program?

- By aggregating the natural gas requirements of our members, we are able to achieve better pricing than any one member could achieve by signing an individual contract directly with a natural gas retailer.

How does the AHLA Natural Gas Aggregation Program Work?

- Working with GAE, the AHLA has developed an innovative natural gas buying strategy that provides the flexibility to meet the varying risk tolerances of our members.
- Natural gas supply will be purchased on behalf of our members at the Daily Index Price until an opportunity to purchase natural gas contracts below C$5.50/GJ is available on monthly terms up to five years.
- A member has the option to select the months and the load percentage for which they wish to purchase natural gas contracts. For example:
 - Members have the option to purchase natural gas contracts during the winter months each year for five years when their natural gas consumption is at its greatest.
 - A member may opt to purchase natural gas contracts over the next two years because they are concerned about the future ownership of the properties.
 - A member may opt to purchase natural gas contracts over the next three years because they are uncomfortable buying contracts beyond this point in time.

Who can participate in the AHLA Natural Gas Aggregation Program?

- AHLA members who own or manage properties in communities served by ATCO Gas and AltaGas Utilities.

Properties that choose to participate in the AHLA Natural Gas Aggregation Program

- Must not have an existing contract for supply. If you do, contact the AHLA for further options.
- Will appoint the AHLA to act as their Agent in obtaining natural gas supply.
- Will receive one bill for both commodity costs and regulated transportation charges.

If you are interested in participating in the AHLA Program, the AHLA needs you to:

- Complete and sign the Letter of Interest / Non-Disclosure on the backside of this page and you will receive contract documentation from the AHLA.
- Your participation in the AHLA Natural Gas Aggregation Program will be considered confirmed only when the AHLA has received the executed contract documentation from your property.
- The AHLA will not contract natural gas for any member unless your completed contract documents are received by the AHLA by the stipulated deadline. If your contract is not received in the AHLA office by stipulated deadline, your property will be enrolled for delivery of natural gas at the discretion of the AHLA and the pipeline utility.
